The Redmen's Ball

WAILUKU PLEASED BY

FATHER BOARMAN

Walluku Oct, 26.—Father Boarman Decan his series of lectures at the Catholic church, Walluku, last evening to a fairly large audience, the slight showers of the evening presumably above and the control of the specific of the specific control of the specific will join with the other nations in regard to the settlement with China. I know our country signed the protocol with the others, but I cannot say just what will be done further. It may be necessary that China have a new commercial treaty with Japan. The Marquis cannot say what we will want or ask for in this connection. He has not, I am quite sure, any pronounced views on the question of a Pacific carbie, except that he, like all the rest of the past ten years are not a fairly large audience, the slight showers of the evening presumably a keeping away some who had planned to hear the lecturer. The subject for the seeping away some who had planned to hear the lecturer. The subject for the carbie will regain it in time. For the least of hile, except that he, like all the rest of the past ten years are marked to a fairly large audience, the slight showers of the evening presumably abovers of the evening away some who had planned to hear the lecturer. The subject for the vening was "Confession." and the same as those already published in the Bulletin, while Father listed in the Bulletin, while Father listed in the Bulletin, while Father least form being nearly the same as those already published in the Bulletin, while Father listed in the past ten years

There were many Protestants in the audience and some of them were moved audience and some of them were moved Maud Muller on a summer's day by the words of the priest, but not to Dropped her rake and ran away the point of relinquishing the teach-ings of their church, although many With an agent for a patent churn, of them declared that the arguments Who had a million—yet to earn. were both reasonable and logical. The speaker formulated his argument on the teachings of the Old and New Tea. "Gee!" said Maudie, "ain't it nice!"
